Dear Readers,

Greetings to you all!

There had been couple of important events in last two weeks out of which culmination of the Kumbha which I consider to be one of the most spectacular event which we as a nation organise. It's magnificence is unique, unmatched and managed so well despite being the largest socio-religious congregation on this planet. This Kumbha truly justified the slogan given to it i.e. 'Divya Kumbha: Bhavya Kumbha' meaning thereby 'Divine Kumbha: Grand Kumbha'. It was simply grand in all respects be it in terms of number of people visited, creation of new infrastructures, beautification, sanitation, hygiene and above all security & safety arrangements, to say the least. Although there had been couple of reported fire incidents within the Kumbh Mela premises but there were no loss of life. Overall this Kumbh was a mega success and kudos must go to the organisers (the Government of Uttar Pradesh).

The nation was glued to the TV screens for couple of days (post Pulwama attacks) and thereafter punitive surgical air strike on 'non-military' targets at Balakote presumably the training centre of terrorist organisation JeM. This had uplifted the mood of the nation but Pakistani Air Force launched retaliatory attacks and targeted military installations across the Line of Control (LOC). Indian fighters bravely chased them away but one of our Air warrior Wing Commander Abhinandan Vartaman had to bail out of MIG 21 after shooting down one Pakistani superior fighter aircraft F-16. He landed on the other side of the LOC and faced serious life threat from the hostile population after creating history by being the only pilot in the world to have shot down a mighty F-16 (3rd/4th generation) with a tiny and very old and aircraft MIG 21 BIS (2nd generation) to do so. He has been hailed for his outstanding fighting skills in the air and exemplary courage against heavy odds while in the hands of enemy. Finally he was released and country rejoiced his return. Our salute to this brave-heart!

While the atmospheric temperatures are rising gradually notch by notch despite that we witnessed the coldest March in four decades and on the other hand, political atmosphere is getting warmer sharply day by day with hectic political activities. The Election Commission has announced the schedule of National election. This election too will be another major democratic exercise on the planet held so far wherein 100 Million new voters would be exercising their franchise for the first time. It is also a matter of great pride that the power transfer in India has always been peaceful and verdict of the people has been honoured by all political parties till date since first national election in 1951-52.

In the coming fortnight, the nation will celebrate Holi, the festival of colour. We all celebrate this festival with all fervour and gusto but celebration at Vrindavan and Mathura (UP) is unique. Devotees and tourists in large numbers beeline to watch the 'Lathmar Holi' (wherein males of Nandgaon (village of Lord Krishna) are beaten with stick on their heads by the females of Barsana (village of Radha). Legend has it that Lord Krishna visited his beloved Radha's village on this day and took to teasing Radha and her friends. Taking offence at this, the women of Barsana picked up sticks and chased him away. Since then it has become a tradition and being followed. The ladies of Barsana shows literally no mercy to the men of Nandgaon, although the men are geared with shield to save themselves. It is a great sight to see that how these men and women outsmart each other in the midst of riots of colour.

At the end, I wish you all a Very Happy Holi!

Thanks and Best Regards,

Col (Dr.) MP Sen
